THE 1966 VIKING

WE SALUTE

MR. NEIL COLLARD

for his endless contributions to MHS yearbooks.

This was Mr. Collard's last year as Advisor to the yearbook staff. Not only this year's staff, but the past staffs who also worked under Mr. Collard's direction, know what a rewarding experience it is to work with such a wonderful person. We extend to him our heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude.

AND

for the fine job she has done directing our school plays.

Miss TenPas came to us two years ago and since then, she has kept busy directing plays, supervising debate and forensics activities, as well as teaching Latin and Speech. She is leaving the hallowed halls of MHS to become a Mrs. Our Thanks and Best Wishes go with her.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Viking ship is symbolic of a high school. -

The Administration is like the helmsman,

the faculty, like the galleymasters,

and the students are like the oarsmen.

This year the ship set sail on September 7,

Hands Across The Sea

Elsa Sorenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Einar Sorenson, hails to us from Odense, Denmark. She has one brother, Erik, 34. She is spending her year in America with Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Carrier and Linda, senior '66, her American Sister.

Elsa's future plans include two years of Junior College and four years of Journalistic Training.

Elsa had this to say about America: "America is the best place on earth for Americans, and you have almost made me one."

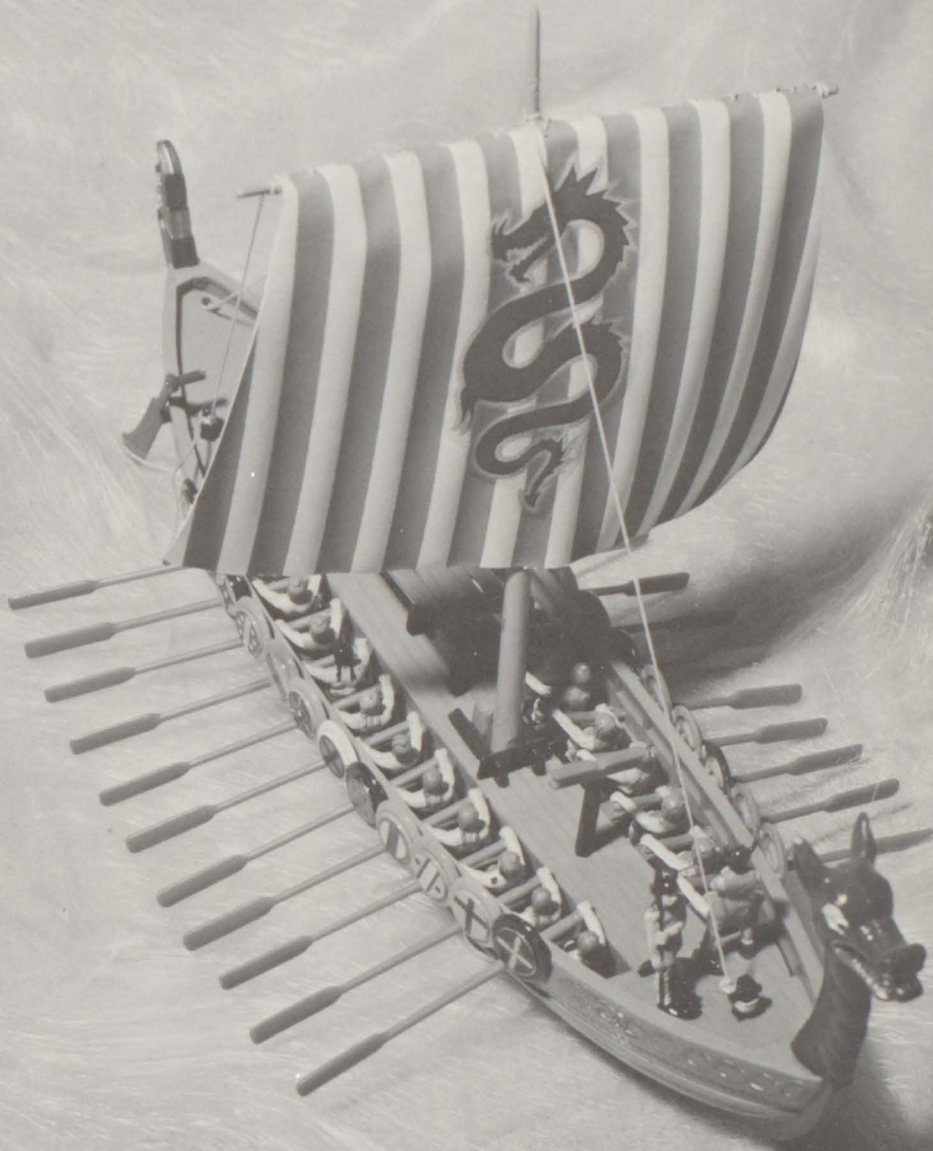

Geertruida (Truus) Brouwer, from Amsterdam, Holland, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willem Brouwer. She has one brother, Wim, 22, and one sister Mieke, 6. Her American parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norbert L. Gragowski and her American sisters are Janet and Carolyn.

Truus's future plans include a study of medicine for which she will go to the University of Amsterdam.

The comment that Truus leaves us is: "I'm glad I had the opportunity to come to the States. I really feel at home here and I hope that Marysville High will have exchange students next year because living in another country is the best way to understand the people of that country."

UNDERCLASSMEN

The main strength of any Viking ship is its oarsmen, and so the underclassmen are the main strength of MHS. The oarsman's life is a mixture of work and play. The oar often pulls hard, the seas are sometimes rough, but with undaunted determination the oarsman toils on, secure in the knowledge that his efforts shall be rewarded in a fuller, richer life.

SPORTS

As the Vikings of old were often forced to defend themselves, so were the Marysville Vikings of 1966. Their strength, like that of the early Norsemen, lay not only in defense but in attack as well. This year's Vikings, being tops in both, enjoyed the fruits of victory in many a battle throughout the year.

This year's freshmen began their football season on September 22 with a victory over Cros-Lex. As the season progressed the freshmen, under the fine leadership of Coach Chapman, compiled a 3-3 won lost record.

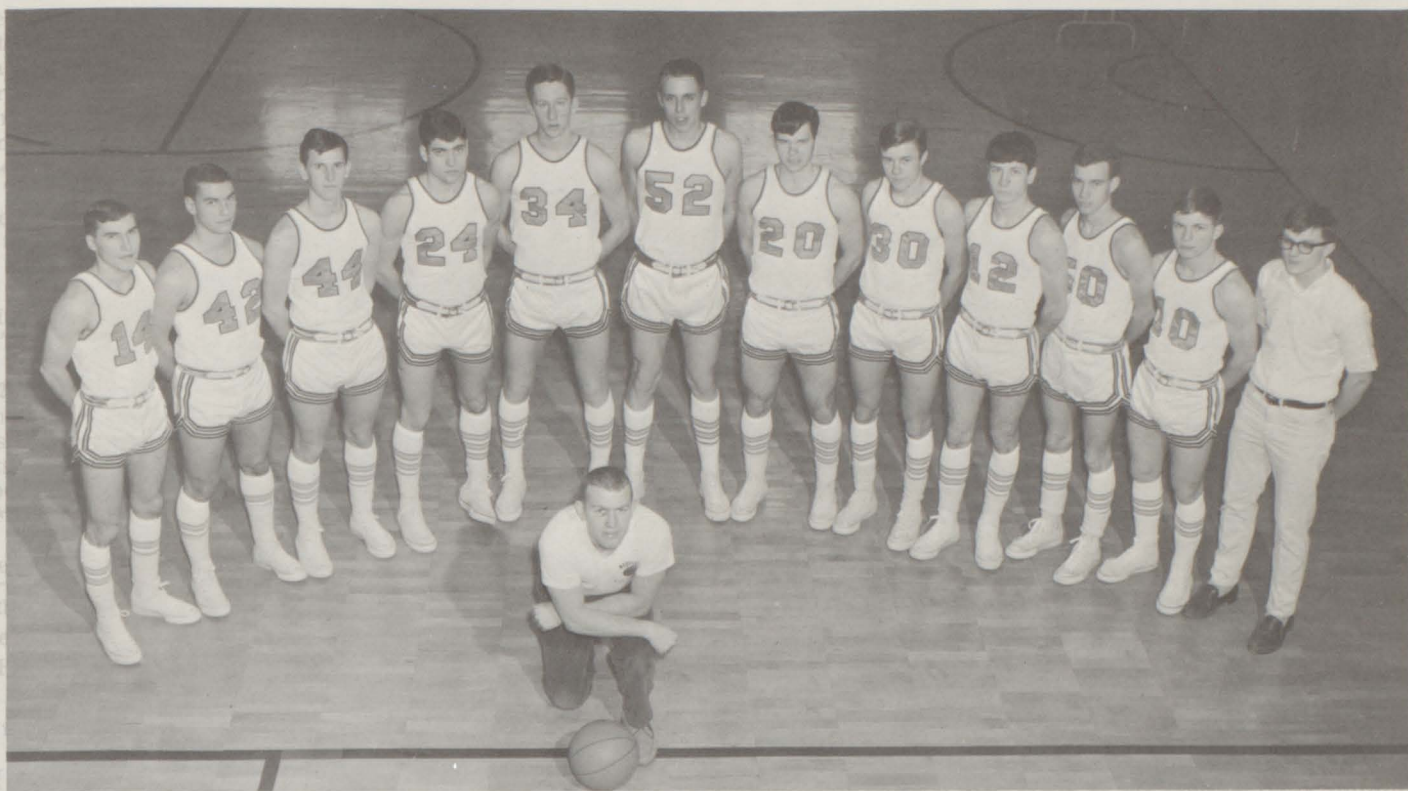

Enthusiasm, good sportsmanship, and a desire to win were shown in all their play.

Good luck for a successful J. V. season!

The '66 Vikings' display of talent and spirit carried them through the season and on to the Regional championship. Although not a tall team, they were fast. Speed, along with fine shooting and excellent rebounding, gave the Marysville Vikings their second consecutive SCAL championship. They then went on to District competition where they won a couple of squeakers to capture the District title. On to the Regionals went the spirited Vikings! Playing in Flint's huge IMA stadium, the Vikings won their three games thus becoming the fourth Marysville team to become Regional champs. Our congratulations, boys for a job well done.

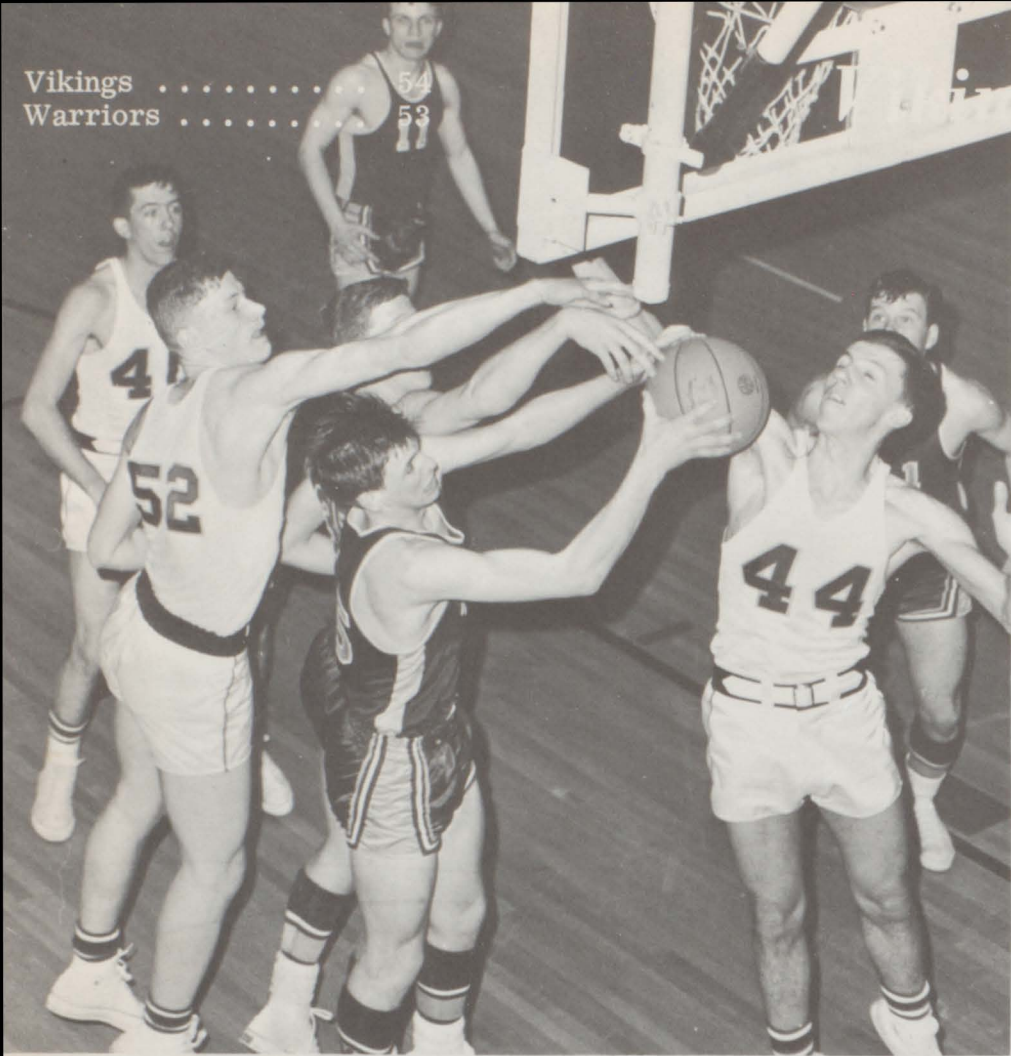

THIS IS Marysville's venture into the quarter second in the last four years. "I hope we can keep it," Lee said. "Just when you hits a bit of a slump, so else steps in and does and it's been that way since started playing in the 'meats'."

Huron Catholic's Ron and Phil Conger. Algonac Majdram, moved up from year's second team, to out the first unit. The second team listed Peter of St. Clair, Al Marine City, Jim Hichmond, Mike Fitchros-Lex and Tom Sm Marysville were named second team.

The sign above reflects the feelings of MHS students toward their basketball team. The team, in turn, can be proud of the student body for the support which the kids gave. Signs like the one below were displayed. In addition, five buses filled with hopeful Vikings trekked to Flint three times to root their team to victory. Needless to say, they were not disappointed.

The Seniors, of course.

Now whose gonna win?

Though the majestic combatants used well-executed plays, they just couldn't get across the goal line. As a result, the game ended a 0-0 tie.

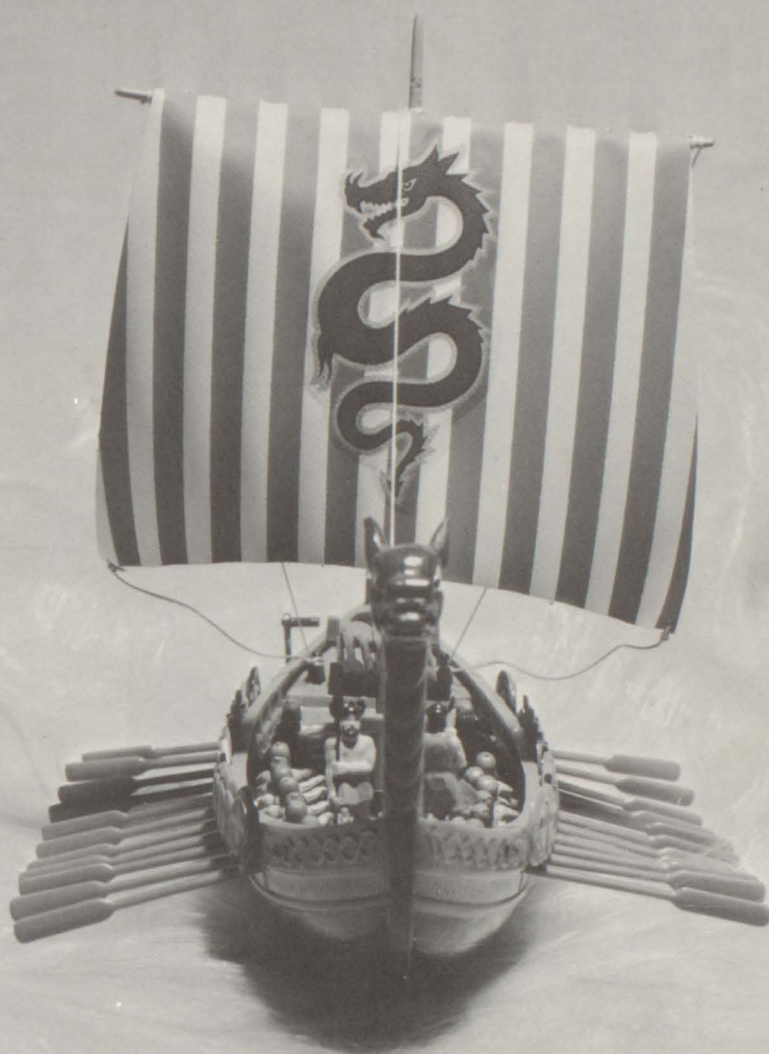

Now Grace, don't expect too much. After all, you had me for History last year.

Like I said - the Seniors!

ACTIVITIES

Vikings weren't always in battle and neither are Marysville High's Vikings. Not everyone can participate in sports and so a variety of activities is offered to help develop the talents and attitudes of the "non-battlewinners." These activities are important. They can supply some of the most rewarding high school experiences.

The GAA began the year with a spirited football game between the seniors and the juniors. Dressed in complete football attire, each girl ran, blocked, and tackled in playing to a 0-0 tie. In December, girls from the St. Clair area schools participated in various indoor sports at a play day, sponsored by Marysville. The GAA also sponsored both a mother-daughter and a father-daughter play night. The highlight of this year's activities was the basketball sports tournament held in February. Both the J.V. and the Varsity teams of Marysville rolled over their opponents — Algonac, Cros-Lex, and Port Huron Catholic, to become the tournament champs. In addition to the club's regular activities this year was eight bowling teams which competed among each other.

THE AMPLIFIER STAFF

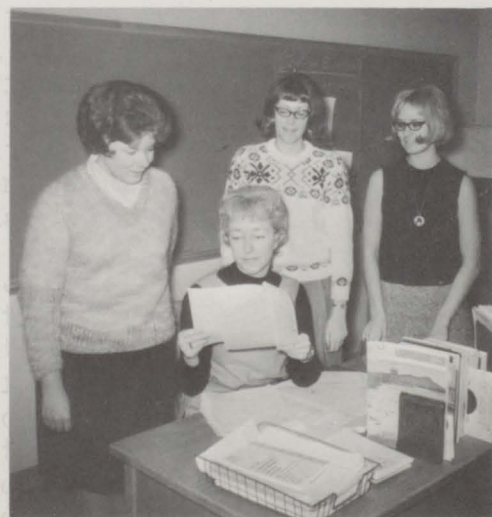

Grace Eastman; Margaret Bills; Linda Hebert; Sherri Delezenne; Else Sorensen; Debbie Cheney; Kim French; Wanda Campbell; George Popa; Miss

Vivian, Advisor; Barbara Duncan; Andy Simpson; Tina Wastell.

Hail to the leader, sharp and keen;
Editor-in-chief is Sherri Delezenne.
Wanda Campbell takes care of features;
Grace Eastman makes sure that editorial writers don't become preachers.

Two great sports editors, Mr. Popa and Mr. French, Cover sports, on the field, floor and bench.
Miss Cheney heads the writing staff;
Margaret Bills runs the mimeograph.
Andy Simpson is the exchange editor;
And what's a newspaper without star reporters? Else Sorensen and Tina Wastell

Report the news so very well
That there's only one job left; I don't want to slight it,
But the paper really needs someone to type it.
The two typists are Misses Hebert and Duncan —
But wait; I'm sure we're missin' somethin'

Oh, yes, there's one much smarter and wiser —
That's Miss Vivian, our loyal advisor.
Now all can realize without a town crier,
The best paper around is the AMPLIFIER.

Leadership*

The Honor Society is an honorary organization for students with high scholastic averages. Juniors and seniors receive their pins as soon as they're accepted into the society and the sophomores, accepted as probationary members, receive theirs the following year. The high standards must be maintained in order to remain in the organization. This year's initiates were not chosen in time to have their pictures in the yearbook.

JUNIOR PLAY

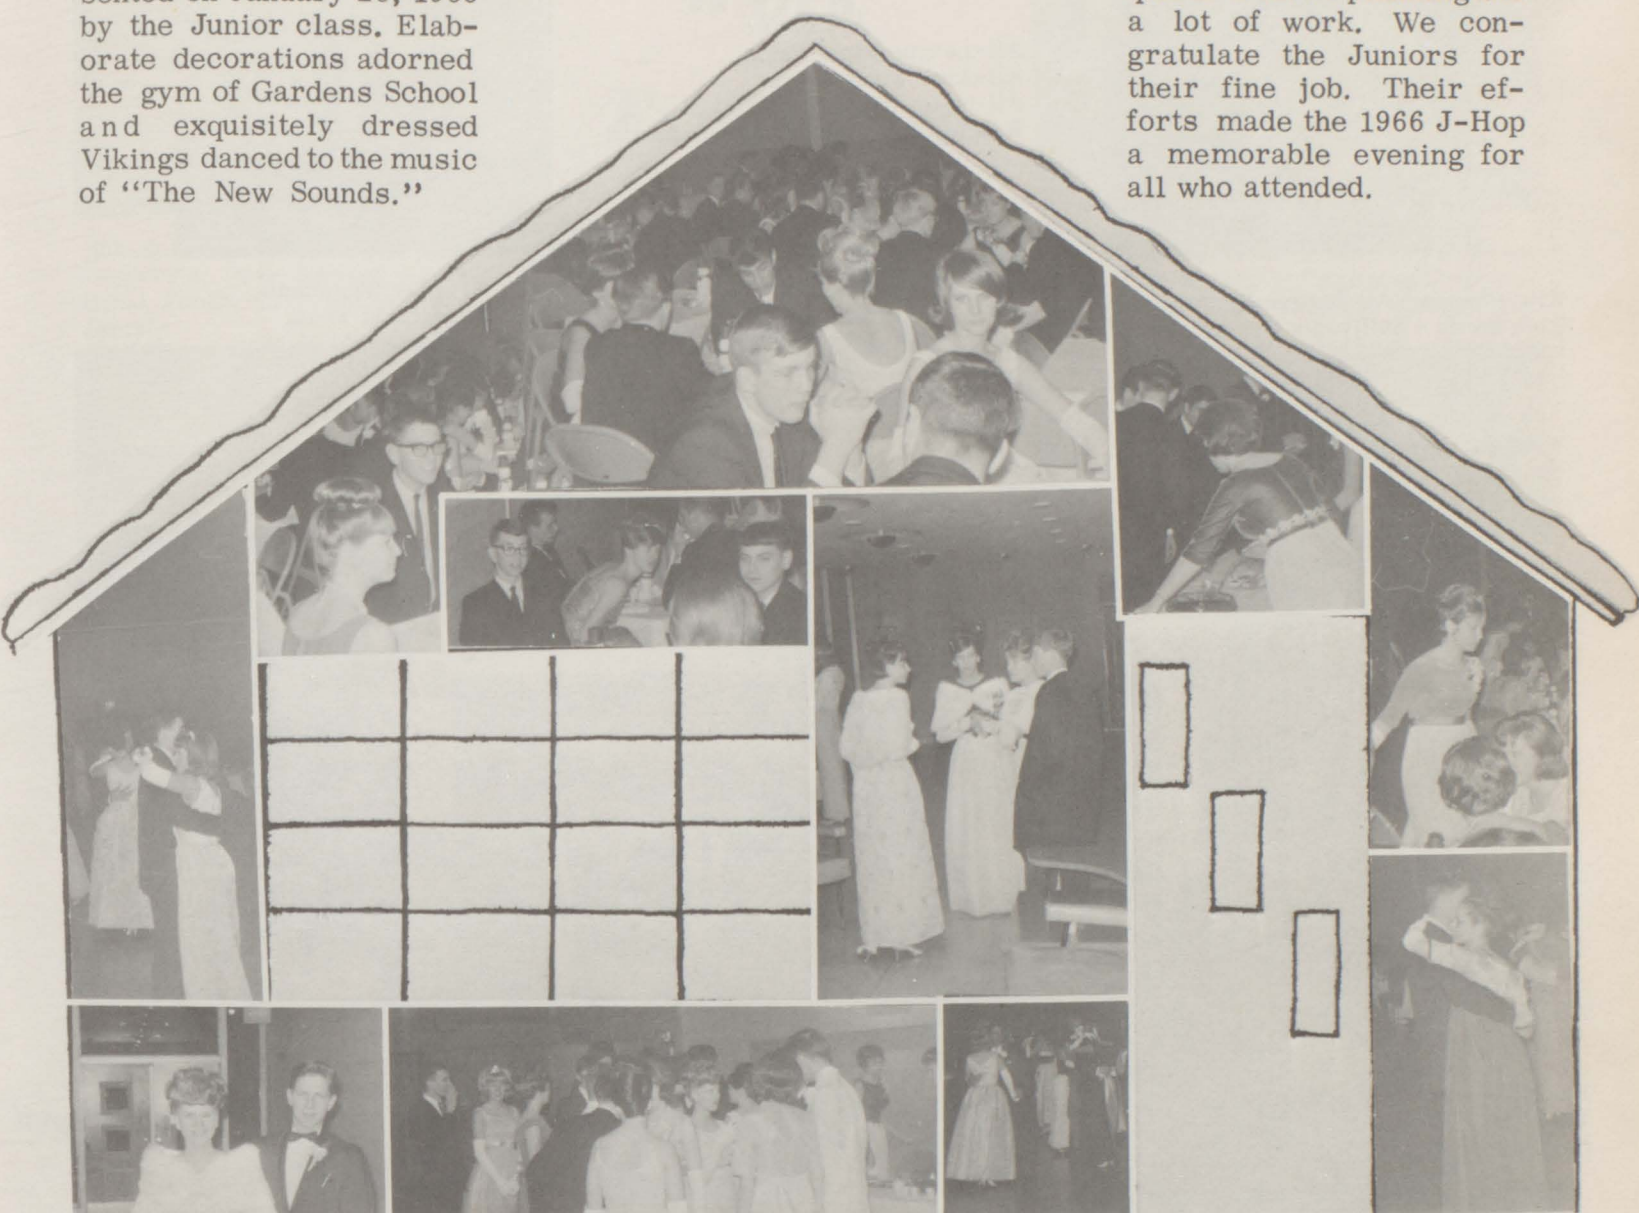

The Junior Class presented a full length comedy, "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" by David Rogers on April 15, 1966. When a missile base is put in Putman's Landing, a quiet New England town, the townspeople strongly object to it. The public relations man from the Army tries to calm things down, but bedlam breaks out. Many funny incidents and accidents lead to an exciting climax. The play was directed by Miss Tenpas and Joe Pavlov, Student Director.

JUNIOR PROM

This year's J-Hop was presented on January 28, 1966 by the Junior class. Elaborate decorations adorned the gym of Gardens School and exquisitely dressed Vikings danced to the music of "The New Sounds."

A dance of this nature requires a lot of planning and a lot of work. We congratulate the Juniors for their fine job. Their efforts made the 1966 J-Hop a memorable evening for all who attended.
